

A NEW THING WORKSHOP

DREAMING LAB FOR INNOVATIVE MINISTRY AND GRANTS WRITING

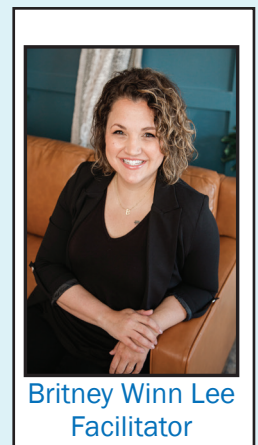

a free workshop offered by the Grants Outreach Program of the United Methodist Foundation of Louisiana

TURN YOUR MINISTRY DREAMS INTO REALITY!

WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION

Utilizing Kenda Creasy Dean's Innovating for Love: Joining God's Expedition Through Christian Social Innovation, the Foundation's Grants Outreach Program offers several half-day workshops to explore the theology behind and current necessity for ministry innovation. We will also provide ample examples of such ministries, facilitate idea-producing group exercises and educate participants about the resources available within our Foundation, our Conference and our regions that can aid actualization.

Workshop facilitator Britney Winn Lee is the Foundation Grants Outreach Program Coordinator and a lifelong United Methodist. Since graduating from Centenary College, she has spent years working in faith-based nonprofits and UM churches. She earned a master's degree in nonprofit administration and is currently on the deacon track at Garrett Evangelical Theology Seminary.
